Still Explodes, Destroys House; Burns Attendant-
Chicago Tribune-1923. Bennett Ferg was severely burned and a two-story frame building at Maplewood and Milwaukee Avenues was destroyed by fire yesterday when a 150 gallon still exploded at the rear of the structure. 45 cases of denatured and distilled alcohol were found stored in the shed. Ferg admitted he had been hired to guard the still. (Peter J.Burns)

Happy 96th Birthday to Ford Burns, Charter Member, on November 15, 2007!

THE DAN RYAN (CHICAGO) EXPRESSWAY

Peter Burns, HAHS Genealogist and Author has researched the Dan Ryan and is truly pleased with his findings. Burial sites in St. John the Baptist Cemetery attest to his findings. (Timothy Carroll is buried in section C#59)

The Dan Ryan Expressway opened in 1962 and is designated both Interstate 90 and Interstate 94. It runs 12 miles south from the center of Chicago to 96th Street. It has fourteen lanes of traffic; seven in each direction and on any given day over 300,000 vehicles use it. Believe it or not Hubbardston has a small connection to the Dan Ryan. And that connection is Timothy Carroll. Timothy Carroll and his family came to the United States in 1880, thirty years later than most famine immigrants. We don't know when he arrived in North Plains Township nor what drew him to it. Perhaps it was the Beahans since his mother's name was Nellie Beahan. The 1900 Census shows Timothy as a farmer living in North Plains with his wife Katherine (Ryan) and his son Michael. Timothy and Katherine are shown to have had nine children all born in County Tipperary, Ireland, but we only know the names of five. Michael remained single and died in the 1920's, James married Iva Myers in 1914 and died in Ionia in 1944, Katherine who married William Meehan in Hubbardston in 1902 and lived in Brighton. Another daughter Mary married Richard Needham in Carson City in 1901 and had two daughters Anna and Alice.

Alice Needham was probably named after her aunt Alice Carroll, the last known child of Timothy and Katherine Carroll. It's not known if Alice spent any time in North Plains Township before moving to Chicago. She was eighteen when the family immigrated. Three years later Alice A. Carroll and Daniel Ryan, another recent immigrant from County Tipperary, were married in Chicago. Mr. Ryan was employed in the stockyards as a successful buyer. Alice and Daniel settled into a home at 6647 Stewart Ave. in Chicago's Ward 32 and had seven children, five boys and two girls. The Ryans made regular trips to Michigan to visit their relatives. In the April 23, 1915 Carson City Gazette this article appeared.

"Mrs. D Ryan, Dan Ryan Jr. and James Ryan returned to Chicago Friday having been called here by the death of Mrs. Ryan's father T Carroll." Timothy Carroll age 75 had died on April 10th. The wake was held at the Burns Funeral Home and the Mass was held at St. John the Baptist and he was laid to rest beside his wife Katherine in the church cemetery.

Back in Chicago Dan Ryan Sr. by this time had changed jobs. His political genius was recognized when he became a Democratic leader in the old Thirty-second ward. Then in 1914 he was elected to the Cook County Board of Commissioners. He served nine years on the board, two years as president, before his death on June 13, 1923. Alice Ryan lived another 15 years before dying in November 1938. Both are buried at Mount Olivet Cemetery in Chicago. In November 1923 Dan Ryan Jr. was elected to serve the remainder of his father's term. From that time until his death in April 1961 Dan Ryan Jr. served a total of 33 years on the Cook County Board of Commissioners, the last seven as president. Six months later the county board adopted a resolution to name the then South expressway after Dan Ryan, late president of the county board. The same 21 year old young man who came to his grandfather's funeral in

Hubbardston is the namesake of the Dan Ryan expressway.(Peter Burns)

A preacher wanting to show the dangers of smoking, drinking and over-eating decided to use worms as a demonstration. Standing before his congregation, he placed whiskey, cigarette smoke and chocolate in separate jars. Then he placed a live worm in each jar. The worms all died. "What does this lesson tell you?" he asked. Maxine, in the back row shouted out, "If you drink, smoke and eat chocolate, you won't have worms!"

Yes, Virginia, There Really is "Love at First Sight!" Agnes McGrath was born in Hancock in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. Quint Cusack was born on Borden Road west of Hubbardston. A family wedding provided the setting, and a family party shortly after on July 28, 1952 sealed the attraction. About 6 weeks later (September 13, 1952) they were married. They just celebrated 55 years together with some of their 10 children and numerous grandchildren. They celebrated 50 years by traveling to Antarctica and South America. The 55th was a jaunt to Norway, the fiords and the coast of Russia. They are both healthy, vital, and a joy to know. They have 'built in' entertainment in their children, who are the best comedians you can imagine. Both Charter Members of HAHS, they are with us in every venture. Our very best to them and healthy happy years ahead. Agnes's secret, "You take it day by day and love it as you go. I wouldn't change a thing!" Quint's advice, "It's alright to argue. Just settle it and never go to bed angry. Always pick a fight she can win and you'll be happy all of your days."

Sr. Mary worked for a home health agency and ran out of gas making her deliveries. She walked to a gas station to borrow a gas can and buy some gas. She was told that all the gas cans had been lent out. On her way to see a patient, she lost no time in hurrying back to the car to look for a container. She spotted the bedpan she was taking to her patient. Always resourceful, she carried the bedpan to the station, filled it with gas and carried the full bedpan back to her car. As she was pouring the gas into her tank, two men watched from across the street. One of them turned to the other and said, "If it starts, I'm turning Catholic!" (Bud McKenna)

Thanks to Mary Ann Wellwood, (90) organist at The Methodist Church and St. Mary's in Carson City for her lovely note and generous monetary donation to The Hubbardston Area Historical Society. You're one in a million, Mary Ann. Health and good times to you!

An elderly gentleman, wealthy and very deaf, purchased a hearing aid. Two weeks later he returned to report that he could hear very well, even from the next room. "Your family must be very happy that you can hear better!"

"Oh, I haven't told them. I've been sitting around listening! You know - I have changed my will twice." (Madeline Fahey Bennett)

Phillip C. McKenna, CEO of McKenna Associates Inc., has been named 2007 Outstanding Professional Planner by the Michigan Association of Planning. In announcing the decision, the association's awards committee cited McKenna's decades of work shaping Michigan communities into vital, interesting and attractive places to live, work and do business.

Phil is co-founder and co-chair of the Hubbardston Area Historical Society. He was born and raised on McKenna Road, west of Hubbardston. He graduated from St. John the Baptist High School in 1959 and has maintained a vital interest in his home town area. He resides with his wife and children in Farmington Hills

James Cotter, son of James Sr. and Mary McCrackin Cotter of Pewamo, has been appointed director of the Office of Admissions at Michigan State University after the completion of a national search. Jim was a star pitcher for the MSU Baseball team in his years at MSU. He is married to the former Kim Rademacher (daughter of Teddy and Bonnie Belen Rademacher) of Westphalia. Kim is a Special Education teacher at Portland High School. (MSU Today, Sept. 21, 2007)

Youth is a gift of nature. Age is a work of art. Truth is the only safe ground to stand on!

Fall Social a Terrific Success (in the dark) On August 23, 2007 a brave crowd of people entered the Tuscan Masonic Lodge with fear in their eyes. There were tornado warnings out. Those setting up had left home too early to hear the latest weather. But-we had a beautiful dinner, a crowd of 50 people and the greatest in entertainment. Maureen Burns, author, speaker and international motivational personality had us in stitches as she made us laugh at ourselves in our efforts to convince our friends that our days are tougher than theirs. The truth!! “Twenty percent know their day is worse than ours and eighty percent of the people could care less!” So, we save our energy and tough it out. Every joke had a lesson in it. It was just a terrific presentation. And then the lights went out! Nick Burns came from Big Rapids with his family, worked with Duane Fahey (HAHS website) for an hour setting up his power point show – and the lights went off! But being the trooper that he is, he stepped up to the plate and delivered one fantastic diatribe on DNA and reviewed everything we ‘ought to know’ about our biology classes. Luckily, people had a chance to view his detailed charts before dinner, so that was an advantage. Nick’s mother and dad made the trip from Portland with daughter Kathy to enjoy the presentation. Ford will be 96 in November and he and Lucille are “bright, jolly, and truly entertaining.” It was a superb evening. The tornado skipped us, did terrible devastation to the south in the Grand Ledge and Vermontville area and north in the Edmore area. Our afterglow at Shiels didn’t happen! No lights! No water! No service! We thank especially Karl and Mary Harter for always being so generous and helpful. Their facility fits perfectly for our Fall Social.

Teach a child to be polite and courteous in the home and when he grows up, he’ll never be able to merge his car on the freeway.

Busy Days at the HAHS Museum Room.

On Tuesdays we open at 10:00, do a Communion Prayer Service at St. John the Baptist National Historic Site at noon, and follow that with a potluck luncheon in our Museum Room at the Community Center on Russell Street. Our volunteers make all of this possible. You will often find someone working on Mondays or Fridays, just to try to keep up with the filing. Mary Stoddard Caris is our expert in that area. Marie Marion Sweet keeps all of our records and correspondence up to date and anything else that needs to be done. Jack Fahey is our on-site internet research specialist and Jack Stoddard is our historian. Ruth Parks Riley works on tabulating our inventory of donated reading materials. She is wonderful! Shirley Allen gives us new data and expertise on everything “past” in our area. We’re looking forward to having our quilting techniques brightened. Mary Satterlee will be available to demonstrate her gorgeous needlework. There are so many people who stop by every week and we are so grateful for their interest in our efforts. Our latest donors and/or visitors are: Allen and Janet Kelly, Karl Harter, Don and Sharon Bennett, Nita Heppard, Janet Dailey, Rosie McMillan, Helen Tait, Quint and Agnes Cusack, Susan Sweet (Thanks Tex!), Joan Ingram, Mary Satterlee, Carrie Richards, Dorothy Stoddard, Debbie Cunningham, Jack and Ann Fahey, Pat and Betty McGinn, Dorothy Fletcher, Shirley Allen, Barbara Mitchell, Ruth Riley, Peter, Kathy, Ford and Lucille Burns, Jack and Sandy Stoddard, Bud and Joanne Howard, Russ and Cindy Howard, Mary Ann Wellwood, Raymond and Betty Burns, and the Parks sisters from St. Johns. All welcome!

One nice thing about egotists...they don’t talk about other people!

John J. Harden-One of Oklahoma’s 100 Most Influential Business People (2007)-Born in Hubbardston in 1884

The year was 1927. For more than a decade before, farmers had been backing their trucks and wagons up to the downtown Oklahoma City street curbs and selling their fruits and vegetables to passersby. Local businessmen complained about the traffic and congestion; commercial produce companies protested over lost profits and unregulated competition. When the Oklahoma River flooded, rats would infest the city, making the situation even worse. The City Council knew there had to be a better way. They needed a businessman to come forward and make an offer to build a marketplace. That man was John J. Harden. Harden was born on October 13, 1884 in Hubbardston, Michigan to Thomas and Mary Ann Harden. His parents separated when he was a young boy. In his teenage years, he lived with his aunt and delivered newspapers, and worked in his uncle's dry goods store to earn money to support his mother. He graduated from high school in Lansing, Mi. in 1902. While working in a sugar cane factory in northeastern Nebraska, Harden met his future wife, Frances. Shortly after they were married, the couple began a real-estate development venture in Michigan. They moved to Oklahoma where in 1908, the new state's growing population had a need for housing. He formed Harden Realty Co. in El Reno. In 1916 he began buying land in north Oklahoma City and built a home on Classen Boulevard. When World War I ended, returning servicemen found few vacancies in the city. Harden cashed in by developing reasonably priced housing for families in Oklahoma City. As the 1920's began, Harden had accumulated properties worth 6 million dollars – making him one of the richest men in Oklahoma and one of the most influential in political circles.

In June, 1927, Harden offered to construct the Oklahoma City Farmers Public Market, which would consist of a Spanish-style, two-story building surrounded by sheds for the produce farmers. His proposal included an option for the city to buy the property after he received a 10% annual return on his investment. Harden spent about $250,000 to build the market and was promised that no other public markets would be allowed to operate nearby for the next 35 years. The Oklahoma City Farmers Public Market first opened its doors on June 16, 1928 on the site of the former Delmar Gardens Amusement Park. With 15 foot windows, the ballroom offered views of the downtown Oklahoma City skyline and the largest dance floor in the state, which hosted such entertainers as Count Basie, Bob Wills and the Texas Playboys.

The facility is now on the Register of Historic Places and is host to antique dealers, weddings and receptions. In his lifetime, Harden managed dozens of successful businesses, had probably the largest real estate development in the history of the state and certainly built one of the largest fortunes in the history of the state. He died in 1962. (Marcia Shottenkirk, The Journal Record, May, 2007) Sent by Juanita Cusack Quinn, Tulsa, OK.

An Icon Passes - John L. Cook found safe harbor on August 16, 2007. He was born in Alpena, MI. on August 5, 1946, the son of Helga and John Cook. He was the youngest of four children and is survived by his two brothers, Jim (Nancy) Cook and Thomas (Judy) Cook and sister Carol (Martin) Gehres. John found the love of his life, Elizabeth Wilson at their alma mater Alma College and married her on December 28, 1967 to begin nearly 40 years of a wonderful partnership. His legacy is his three children, Christina Cook, Stacy Burt and Rob Cook and their spouses, David Wisniewski, John Burt; and his five grandchildren; Richey, Marin, Anna, Thomas and Lucas. John was loved by all. Above all he was a champion of children. John discovered his life's work as a sixth grade teacher and principal at Hubbardston Elementary School for 14 years. He led communities, built schools, and served as school superintendent for 15 years working at Alcona, DeWitt and Big Rapids. He retired in 2000, but didn't stop working, serving as an educational consultant for Choice Associates. John was a Wolverine for the sake of his children, then became a Spartan when he received his Ph.D. from MSU. He loved teaching, gardening, made history by being a friend, a gift, an inspiration to his family and friends and his community. Funeral services were August 20 at Redeemer United Methodist Church in DeWitt with Rev. Dr. Rodney Kalajainen officiating, with burial in Mt. Joy Cemetery, Harrisville, MI. John was loved by everyone in Hubbardston where he was the perfect principal, loved by the children and cherished by the community for his ease of manner in providing a 'model' educational experience for students and staff. A senior member of the community, Eva Welsh Burns, often remarked about John's uncanny ability to laugh, and so much enjoy the students. Yet, when it came time for attention, he merely took center stage (wherever he was), held up his index finger, and without a word, there was immediate silence. He would smile and the program would proceed as planned. He returned to Hubbardston often, maintained close friendships in the area and continues to be in our thoughts and prayers. He was that perfect person for the task at hand, God love him!

Lou F. Lemke Jr. age 69, of Muir, passes away unexpectedly August 29, 2007 at his home. He was born August 10, 1938 in Ionia to Louis F. and Anna Hahn Lemke Sr. He graduated from Ionia High School in 1956. Lou married Judith Hartman on November 10, 1973. He was an army veteran, later serving in the National Guard. Lou started working for the village of Muir in 1968 as DPW Superintendent. He was also the village Marshall and Fire Chief, and EMT and was currently working for Lake Funeral Home. He was a member of Lyons Masonic Lodge #37 and a member of the Ionia County Sheriff's Posse. The funeral service by Rev. Ken Harger was at Lake Funeral home on Sat., Sept. 1, 2007 with internment in Oakwood Cemetery in Muir. "Lou Lemke does it all," the headline of a Sept. 6, 1997 Ionia Sentinel Standard article sums up the man who loved the village of Muir with dedication. "Lou was everybody's friend," said Susan Craft DPW Supt., of the man many people referred to as Grandpa or Uncle Lou...Lemke had recently received a plaque for his 50 years of service with local law enforcement. He worked under five sheriffs as Marshall, Special Deputy, Posse and Marine Patrol. He also worked the sheriff's booth at the fair... "He was irreplaceable," said Bob Lake. God grant him rest!

Norma J. Handlon Coryell, aged 69, of Ionia passed away September 7, 2007. She was born Oct. 30, 1937 in Hubbardston, the daughter of Norman and Irene Riley Handlon. Norma married Ken Coryell Sept. 30, 1966 in Ionia. She spent many years working with her husband at Coryell Trucking as secretary and bookkeeper. She was a member of SS Peter and Paul Catholic Church and the Grand Valley Snowmobile Club. She is survived by her husband of 40 years, Ken Coryell, children; Debra and Fred Lauck of Ohio, Dan Bussell and Dandi Pierce of Ionia, Dave Bussell and Linda Hernandez of Ionia; stepchildren Kay and Jeff Baker of Ionia, Kelly and Jim Law of Arizona. Kym Coryell and Willy Farrel of Ionia; brothers, Brian and Colleen Vance of Alaska, Greg and Robin Vance of Hubbardston; sisters Judy and Bill Beyer of Ionia, Sharon and Tom Patterson of Florida, and Amy Vance of Grand Ledge; brother-in-law Bud Montgomery of Ionia and 14 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren. Norma was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters Margaret Lafler and Alice Montgomery. Her funeral Mass was September 14, 2007 with internment at Tuttle Cemetery. Contributions may be made in her name to Ionia Area Hospice. Ours prayers to the family.

Be kinder than necessary, for everyone you meet is fighting some kind of battle. Live simply, love generously, care deeply, speak kindly and leave the rest to God!

Letters from readers: Recently I found your newsletter online and read with interest the article in the March 2007 issue about Iva Hillabrandt Rogers diary. The Peleg Corey mentioned is the brother of my GG grandfather, Smith Corey, and another one of the Corey ancestors married another Hillabrandt in Gloversville, N.Y. I have a great deal of information on this family, including pictures and would love to be able to learn more about the Michigan branch of the family. It is my understanding that our Smith and Peleg's grandfather Peleg Corey acquired 3 parcels of land in and around Ionia County, MI. and Peleg, his brother Charles Corey and sister Mariah (Martha) and her husband Hiram Manning moved from Fulton County, N.Y. area to live on this land...I have a picture I am certain is young Minnie Corey (before she married Hillabrandt) and there are others not labeled that might be able to be identified. Thank you, (Barbara Jackman, Martinsville, Virginia.)

Thanks for responding to my inquiry about Dr. Lattimer's burial. Evan called us the day before so we were there at the memorial. My nephew, Ashley Townsend, and his family also attended. He had met Dr. Lattimer on a couple of occasions and was also impressed with the man. So, most of the people there, were relatives of John. Yes, Evan ...was tearful as she attempted to read her comments about her father. It is unfortunate that she lives so far away....She so wants to come back to Jones Road yet this Fall. Let's hope she can. (Byron Townsend, Ovid, Mi.)

I am enclosing my check for $60 for 5 more years of the HAHS newsletter... Hope all is well with you and your family. Thanks for acting as my communication link with the others. (Raymond Burns, Gladstone, Oregon)

Thanks for having me speak to your group. It was fun – no lights and all. Have a great Fall. You do such great work with your music, Irish Society, etc. Bravo. (Maureen Burns, Greenville, Mi.)

I received your note detailing ...my check for the two books and the two year membership...I ordered the books as a part of a 54th wedding anniversary present for my wife Sarah Davern Marcy who enjoys your newsletters so much....Many thanks for your good efforts. (Lynn Marcy, Otsego, Mi.)

Enclosed is my renewal check. Your newsletter is always very interesting. Each issue offers information about an interesting, industrious, fun bunch of people. Keep up the good work. (Richard Burns, Rolling Hills Estates, Colorado.)

I don't know when my membership runs out, but enclosed is a check to cover another year. I enjoy getting it so much, I do not want to miss an issue. I recently spent a week at Crystal lake and spent my afternoons visiting in Carson City with old friends. Sadly some have passed away and others are in nursing homes. After leaving 42 years ago, there are only a few left. I miss St. Mary's Church. Thanks. (Agnes Schrauben Kavanagh, Lansing, Mi.)

I truly enjoy the Hubbardston Historical Newsletter. Please keep me on the mailing list. I am Monica Everest Galuso's daughter. (Jean Finkler, Grand Rapids, Mi.)

I'm sending a check for last year's and this year's membership...Will you be writing the book for St. Mary's Parish? If so, I'd like a copy. (Donna Lynch Cook, Pewamo, Mi.)

Enclosed is my check for my membership dues...Our new pastor is from County Sligo, Ireland. Father Jim Henry served in our parish just after his ordination in 1971. Since we've only belonged to Madonna Parish since 1998, we've never met him, but from everyone who knew him, he was well-loved. (Shirley Davern Fox, Salinas, California)

Received your nice note and appreciated it. Regarding the list of St. Mary's graduates, there was one omission in it and I don't know if that was on your list or not. Irene McCrackin should be on the list of 1946 graduates. She mentioned this to me and assured me that she did graduate. Keep up the good work. Good wishes always, (Bob Kavanagh, Lansing, Mi.)

I have been a procrastinator with this check and this note. I am not Irish and I have never been a Hubbardston resident, but I enjoy reading the newsletter. I came to Carson City in the Fall of 1940. I have had contact and built up friendships with many in this area. Thank you for continuing to send me the newsletter. (Mary Ann Wellwood, aged 90, organist at St. Mary's and the Carson Methodist Church, Carson City, Mi.)

Inquiry?

Jan Glover Suchna of Pittsburgh, PA recently called me to inquire about any knowledge we might have about her great great grandfather Lynus (Linus) Van Alstine who was married to Marrila (?) and lived in Hubbardston in the 1850-1860 era. He is listed on the 1850 census, was a Postmaster and a Marshall in Hubbardston. Dennis Glover died in 1866 and is buried in Payne Cemetery. A descendant, Frank Glover owned land on Ely Highway next door to the Van Sickles. Joe Van Sickle, now 82, had some information and a wonderful conversation with Jan and her husband when they visited the area in mid-September. If you have info e-mail it to mjh655@pathwaynet.com and I will pass it on.
